

School Meals

Are produced on site by SPIE Catering

Walkden High School operates a cafeteria system with a wide choice of lunches:

- You can have a freshly-made two-course lunch every day,
- Or chose from a meal deal option consisting of a main meal, drink and either fresh fruit or biscuit.
- The weekly menu will consist of different types of food such as European, Indian, Mexican, Chinese, Italian or Spanish dishes.

Prices, paying for school meals

The average cost of a two course meal is £2.10, which is the current value of a free school meal.

In addition to the standard menus SPIE Catering offer additional choices such as deli style salad bar, baguettes, sandwiches, wraps, soup and jacket potatoes.

- The secondary school have a cashless system and pupils are issued with smart cards to identify themselves.
- Paying for your child's school meals online gives you more control and greater visibility over the food choices they are making.
- ParentPay is a truly cashless catering system, making schools safer and giving you peace of mind.
- There's no need for children to take cash into school - you can top up your balance using one of the payment methods accepted.
- Your balance will be updated daily based on the meals your child selects.
- View meal choices online in schools using compatible cashless till systems
